

Thundercloud Plum

Prunus cerasifera 'Thundercloud'

The Thundercloud Plum is famous for its deep purple foliage that remains true throughout the growing season. A wonderful accent tree or small shade tree that is particularly nice for townhouse lawns and around patios, plant near blue spruce or underplant with blue junipers for a spectacular color combination.

Size: 20 to 30 feet high and wide

Shape: Rounded-upright

Flowers: Dainty pink in early spring

Rate of Growth: Fast

Other Attributes: Drought tolerant once established.

Growing Conditions: Plant in full sun in average well-drained soil.