Cultural Arts Events Begin in January

Workshops Planned

By Laury Smith, Cultural Arts
Chairman

Highland City Arts Council would like to thank Walmart for a generous contribution of $1,000 to our program. In addition, we would like to thank Kohlers for their outstanding support and contribution of over 400 cookies for this year's Santa Celebration on December 5. This is a wonderful tradition that was established by the Highland Youth Council. We enjoyed and appreciated joining forces this year.

We are thrilled to announce our upcoming workshops. For more information pick up a flyer from Kohlers customer service desk, or the city building, after January 2, 2004, or call 735-6519.

North Utah County Community Choir

The North Utah County Community Choir is being sponsored by American Fork City Arts Council, Highland Arts Council, and Cedar Hills. The choir is for adults and those 14 years, or older, and enrollment is open to residents of Alpine, American Fork, Cedar Hills, Highland, and Lehi.

Rehearsals will begin January 27, 2004 from 7:30 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. at the Alpine Tabernacle. For more information contact Raylene Jogenseon at 756-0409, or Kenna Mills at 763-1854.

The new conductor which has been selected for the NUC Community Choir is Kenna Smith. She has been conducting since 1994, has teaching credentials, worked as a junior high school choir director, is currently a voice teacher, and has conducted many voices in various long term choir groups. The talents and skills she brings to this position will give a great enrichment and enjoyment to all who participate.

Please come sing with the choir and enjoy the beautiful music.

American Fork Arts Council Music Classes

MUSIC TOGETHER classes for families with young children (ages 0-6) is being taught Wednesday and Friday mornings at the American Fork Library at 9:30, 10:30, 11:30, and 12:30. This will involve a series of music classes for groups of families and is taught nationally. Classes involve both children and parents in informal singing, chanting, moving, listening, and instrument playing activities which are developmentally appropriate for young children. Continuing the activities informally at home is made easier by the use of the tape, CD, songbook, and parent education materials provided for each family.

The Music Together classes will be taught by Mrs. Susan Curtis, a graduate of Brigham Young University in Early Childhood Education. Winter classes begin the week of January 5, and will run for 10 weeks. Spring classes will begin the week of March 22, for 10 weeks. The cost for the classes will be $90 for each family enrolled, which includes the materials. To register call Susan at 763-8857, or Laury at the American Fork Arts Council Office at 785-6519, or register at the Arts Council Office, 68 East 490 North (trailer behind the American Fork Fitness Center).

Highland Children's Choir

The Highland Children's Choir is accepting new students in January. For more information contact Kerilinn Lenhart at 492-0590.

Baking Breads and Rolls Class

Come learn how to make delicious baked goods from a professional! Sponsored by the Highland City Arts Council on January 22, 2004, 7:00 p.m., at Bryson Bakery, 165 E. 30 N., American Fork. Cost is $10 per person. For more information, or to register, call 756-5751 between 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. or email mskousen@hotmail.com.

Concerts at Sculpture Park

The Alpine Community Arts Council will present a special Encore Performance by the Hungarian virtuoso pianist Endre Hegedus on Saturday, January 24, 2004, at 7:30 p.m., at the Alpine Art Center. Mr. Hegedus is a faculty member of the Liszt Academy in Budapest, and his playing of that legendary composer's music is not to be missed. The Artist Sponsor is Bank of American Fork. Tickets are available at the door (doors open at 7:00 p.m.), at Kohler's Market, and at the Alpine Art Center. Prices are: $10 adult, $5 student/child, $30 family. The audience is invited to a reception following the performance. For information contact Ann Gray at 763-1137.

Christmas Tree Pick-Up

Highland City has purchased a wood chipper and will make it available for trees picked up by scouts on January 3, 2004. Scouts should bring the trees to the location west of the Public Works Building, 4644 West 11000 North.

BFI will also pick up Christmas trees following the scout pick up. Trees must be at curbside by 7:00 a.m., on January 14, and will be picked up through January 16 until the entire city has been covered. Trees don't need to be cut up. If trees aren't picked up by the January 16, they need to be cut up and taken to the Timpanogos Special Service District, but must be free of tinsel, lights, etc. Flocked trees cannot be chopped up by the Timp District and will need to be cut up and placed in garbage cans to be disposed of through the regular garbage pick-up.

Jr. Jazz Night at LPHS

All Jr. Jazz players are to wear their jersey and get in free to watch Lone Peak Boy's Basketball team play Spanish Fork at the Lone Peak High School Field House. Come cheer on the team!

Highland City Seeks Applications for Public Works Director/City Engineer

Highland City will accept applications for a full time Public Works Director/City Engineer until January 30, 2003. Applicant must be a Civil Engineer and had previous municipal public works experience.

Portion of East/West Road to be Bid

Highland City is desirous of completing the portion of the east/west road from Hidden Acres to 6000 West, and will be accepting bids for the road improvements in January.

Rental of Irrigation Shares

Anyone interested in renting irrigation shares to Highland City for the upcoming season should contact Laurie Adams at 756-5751.

Condolences

Sympathy is expressed to the families of the following individuals who were residents of our community and who recently passed away: Martha Wright, Milton Clifford Jones, and Grace Jensen.
